Delegate Kannan Srinivasan Announces Candidacy for Senate District 32
Special Election to Protect Democratic Majority

Ashburn, VA – Today, Delegate Kannan Srinivasan declared his candidacy for the 32nd State Senate District special election to fill Congressman-elect Suhas Subramanyam’s seat. Winning his past two elections with over 60% of the vote, Kannan has the record of electoral success Democrats are looking for at this moment.

“We can’t let Trump take the Virginia State Senate too,” said Democratic Delegate Kannan Srinivasan. “With women’s reproductive rights, common-sense gun regulations, healthcare, and our democracy under increasing Republican attacks, we have to win this special election. This seat is the last thing protecting a Democratic majority in the Virginia Senate, so it is absolutely critical that MAGA extremists do not win and take Loudoun families backwards. I have a proven track record of winning elections, which is why Loudoun Democrats who know how to win elections are supporting our campaign. Over the coming days, I look forward to earning your vote and working together to ensure Donald Trump’s hateful, divisive rhetoric does not take over Virginia.”

Kannan has been endorsed by the following Loudoun County community leaders:

- Loudoun Senator Russet Perry
- Loudoun Delegate Marty Martinez
- Loudoun Board of Supervisors Chair Phyllis Randall
- Loudoun Supervisor Mike Turner
- Loudoun Supervisor Laura TeKrony
- Loudoun Supervisor Kristen Umstattd
- Loudoun School Board Chair Melinda Mansfield
- Loudoun School Board Member April Moore-Chandler

*Delegate Kannan Srinivasan, a 25 year Loudoun resident and the first Indian American immigrant to serve in the House of Delegates, represents House District 26. As Delegate, Kannan championed women’s reproductive rights, voting rights, healthcare, and gun violence prevention. He’s now running for Virginia’s 32nd Senate District to ensure Democrats retain their single seat majority and act as a brick wall against the resurgence of Trump-era extremism.
