Virginia Democratic Leaders Don Scott and Scott Surovell Announce Endorsement of Delegate Kannan Srinivasan for the Senate District 32 Special Election

Ashburn, VA – Today, Delegate Kannan Srinivasan announced the support of Speaker of the House Don Scott and Senate Majority Leader Scott Surovell in his campaign for the Democratic nomination in the 32nd State Senate District special election to fill Congressman-elect Suhas Subramanyam’s seat.

This announcement follows major endorsements from Loudoun County Democratic leaders yesterday. The growing support of local and statewide leaders illustrates the widely held belief among Democrats that Srinivasan is the Democrat best positioned to win the general election. Srinivasan has won his past two elections with over 60% of the vote, and continuing his record of electoral success will ensure Democrats stop Donald Trump’s extremist allies from taking over the Virginia Senate.

“Delegate Kannan Srinivasan is exactly the leader we need to win this crucial State Senate special election and keep Democratic control in the House and Senate,” said Virginia House Speaker Don Scott. “Kannan has earned deep trust in Loudoun through his dedication and effectiveness—not just because he’s a Democrat, but because he’s a problem-solver who listens, collaborates, and delivers results. With key issues like reproductive rights, voting access, public education, and healthcare on the line, we need someone with Kannan’s experience and determination in the Senate. He’s ready to step up from day one to keep Virginia moving forward.”

“Delegate Srinivasan is the strongest proven candidate to continue our Senate Democratic majority,” said Senate Majority Leader Scott Surovell. “Kannan is poised to put Roe v. Wade, a right to vote, and freedom to marry in the Constitution of Virginia. So that we send a loud and clear message that Donald Trump’s hateful policies have no place in Virginia, I strongly encourage all Loudoun Democrats to vote for Kannan.”

*Delegate Kannan Srinivasan, a 25 year Loudoun resident and the first Indian American immigrant to serve in the House of Delegates, represents House District 26. As Delegate, Kannan championed women’s reproductive rights, voting rights, healthcare, and gun violence prevention. He’s now running for Virginia’s 32nd Senate District to ensure Democrats retain their single seat majority and act as a brick wall against the resurgence of Trump-era extremism.
